SIGHT CONSERVATION COMMITTEE: PDI Bill West is still awaiting a response from a client regarding a request for assistance. The applicant hasn't completed all of the required forms.

BROOM AND BULB COMMITTEE: Lions Dale Linvill and Bob Towell are looking into selling Brooms & Bulbs at the Clemson City Farmer's Market from 4-6 pm on Fridays. The market will be open this summer on Friday's through October 1. The event is being held in the Crosspoint Church parking lot at 1019 Tiger Blvd. The newspaper ad brought 3 orders for brooms. One more ad is scheduled to run in June, but based on the limited response, the ad will not be renewed.

Looking ahead to the 2010 D. W. Daniel football season, they will only have two home games this fall, on September 10th (Westside) and October 15th (BHP). The "Home games" will be played at Easley High School due to construction activities at Daniel High School. We are still waiting to hear if the Club will be expected to collect tickets for those home games.

CANDY DAY/COUNTER MINTS COMMITTEE: Lion Don Turk has now taken over the Counter Mint responsibilities for Lion Bob Edwards and has been out checking various Counter Mint locations.
