FROM THE BOARD MEETING:

CARE COMMITTEE: Lion Dale Linvill updated the Club on the status of his son's wife and children in Libya. They were safe on-board a ferry and awaiting calm seas to leave the port of Tripoli. His son is assigned to the embassy in Libya. Lion Pat Fulmer is improving with much needed therapy.

BROOM & BULB COMMITTEE: Lion George was questioning what we want to do about ordering more inventories. There were questions about getting college students to help with sales. There was also a discussion about the quality of products available from the Ohio source. There was mention that some clubs have switched to a supplier in Alabama. The discussion also migrated into other ideas for fundraisers.

GOLF COMMITTEE: Lion Ensley asked the committee to meet after the regular meeting.

NEW BUSINESS: Lion Joy Boatwright asked if the Club will sponsor the noon meal on Saturday, May 7th, for the Blind Fishing Tournament again this year. It was agreed that we will sponsor the meal.

OLD BUSINESS: The anniversary committee suggested having the club anniversary celebration during the second club meeting in June. This will be June 23rd and will also be New Officer Installation night.

Lion Dale Linvill shared his thoughts on a club BBQ fundraiser. He is awaiting a response from the Pendleton and Central clubs.
