FROM THE BOARD MEETING:

CARE COMMITTEE: Lion Dale Linvill updated the Club on the status of his son. His wife and children have arrived in Clemson and are staying with Dale. His son locked the door and packed the flag as he left the embassy in Libya. Lion Pat Fulmer is improving and is walking in the neighborhood. Lion Richard Culbreath's daughter-in-law is very sick with cancer.

BROOM & BULB COMMITTEE: Lion George asked the Club for direction on whether we want to order more brooms. He is willing to store a certain amount of inventory. There was some discussion about getting college students to help with sales through Clemson Civic Affairs. There was also a discussion about selling brooms at the Central Railroad Festival on April 23rd. The subject of broom sales is still in discussion.

GOLF COMMITTEE: Lion Ensley asked Lions to sign-up to recruit hole sponsors for the tournament.

SPECIAL EVENTS: There was discussion on who will be selected to provide the meal for the Annual Family Picnic. The committee will continue discussions at the next meeting.

OLD BUSINESS: PDG Tom Hayden had found out that Storm Eye Institute is currently researching Glaucoma. The Board approved sending them $500.

NEW BUSINESS: Lion Dale Layfield asked members not to bring copier cartridges, ONLY printer cartridges.

MD-32 STATE CONVENTION: The deadline for program ads and convention registrations is March 25, 2011.
